ComConsent Judicial process App

Guide of questions to inform the judicial process based on communicative acts: consist of a script for prosecutors, judges and lawyers. After the selection and validation of the guide with the professionals for whom it is intended, the questions would be incorporated into a script aimed at clarifying whether ensured that the sexual intercourse took place in an environment free of coercion. This bank of questions would also be adapted to the profile of professionals in the field of jurisprudence. Thus, these questions will serve the different contexts after the creation of a specific question bank for each of them.
